

SEND YOUR COUPONS IN BEFORE FIRST OF MAY.

Time Limit Approaches for Filing These Extra Bal-lots — Candidates Entering Daily — Commendation from Participants in Former Contests Tells of Benefits Received from Scholarships.

THE manager of the Educational Contest wants to call the special attention of the contestants today to the fact that the coupons which have been printed daily in the Times must be voted on or before May 1, as they will be valuable after that date.

And now, a word of caution. Some of the contestants, evidently in their instant and scholarship winner, Stanley C. Carahan was in the contest of 1909 and here is what he says: "I am very glad to say that the scholarship contest of 1909 has enabled me to understand and appreciate the value of education, and the value of the work in the contest."

"I never would have taken up the study of music had it not been for the contest. Since then I have had much enjoyment out of the playing and also play in professional engagements when the time permits. My work at Throop College of Technology, in Pasadena, an engineering college, is rather heavy; but then music we can enjoy at our spare time. The orchestra work is a pleasure and also gives pleasure to all the students."

"I hope the present contest will be very successful."

It is especially gratifying to note the very high character of the schools listed in the offers of scholarship. These are among the best educational institutions of Southern California. Contestants in other educational contests conducted by The Times have attended these institutions and have gone out to take places of importance in their respective locations. The influence of attendance at a high-class school is almost immeasurable. An ambition to enroll oneself as a student in any of these schools where scholarships are offered is one that is worthy of the highest commendation. The very fact that a boy or girl aspires to such an achievement warmly commends them to their friends and all others who learn of their ambitions. For this reason alone it is easy for a boy or girl to enter the Educational Contest right now and soon pile up a showing of votes that will give them a good position in the column of contestants.

VALUABLE EXPERIENCE.

The Times takes pleasure in publishing the following letter from Grace Wagner of this city, who was a successful contestant in one of the previous scholarship contests conducted by this paper:

"Several years ago I entered one of your scholarship contests with the hope of winning a scholarship in some first-class business college where I might be able to fit myself for a stenographic position."

"I was fortunate in winning a year's tuition and needed to say have been greatly benefited by it. I am now holding a responsible position with a firm of very good standing in this city, and have every reason to believe that I am giving satisfaction."

"Besides the benefits derived from the scholarship, I gained much valuable experience and also a great deal of pleasure out of the work."

"I would advise any young man or woman wishing to advance themselves in life, to enter one of your contests, as the opportunity offered by you is one which should not be overlooked."

"Harold Jensen of No. 4547 West Sixteenth street is a Los Angeles High School lad who is showing what can be done in his spare time. He is ambitious to win a scholarship and will soon climb up the list. His father, H. Q. Jensen, is proprietor of the Citrus."

New candidates are entering the contest daily. They find at once that the field is full of promise and that it is easy to quickly make a showing that gives them a good score of votes. Every boy and girl who has been considering the subject, should make the start at once. Send in your entrance form today, and the outfit for immediate work in the field will be sent you at once.

FORMER TESTAMENTS.

The Times is gratified to receive the following letter from a former contestant:

Gladys Sowers, Candidate for a scholarship in the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, who started in the campaign yesterday with a surprising score of votes.

On the second football team at Pasadena High and is properly man for the High School stage. Alvin is finding out that people are very glad to help him realize his ambitions—the winning of a scholarship. He came over to headquarters yesterday, on the electric car sat beside a stranger. Alvin decided that there was no waste time; he told the man about his plans, and right there secured a subscription contract. That's the way it goes with active contestants.

Perry Hollingsworth of No. 718 1/2 West Third street kept up his record yesterday by spreading the news of his candidacy among his friends and landing three subscriptions, and many good prospects.

Joy Fletcher of No. 3119 Baldwin street showed what even one day's activities can do by bringing in yesterday five subscription contracts, representing simply the one day's efforts. Miss Fletcher shows that she is in earnest. She has her eye on the chance to win the choice of scholarship and the $250 main reward for school expense money.

From Redlands comes a new contestant, Quincy Brown, whose home is No. 451 East Citrus avenue. Quincy is 14 years old. He is ambitious to win a scholarship and will soon climb up the list. His father, H. Q. Jensen, is proprietor of the Citrus.

Every Year the Manufacturer sets aside a week during which, the latest development of the Hotpoint electric household appliances is introduced and exploited.

"El Grilator" is the new development this year. It is an electric stove and grill combined—upon which any of your regular cooking utensils or dishes can be used. In addition to this, a special, extra-deep Underditch with a removable broiling grid, is provided for cooking below the coils. There is a reflector which throws all the heat up or down, as needed, when only one side of heat coils is being used.

"El Grilator" is adaptable to all ordinary cooking operations in the average family. From breakfast to the midnight snack you can quickly and conveniently cook such combinations as sausage and bacon—bacon and eggs—bacon and eggs—steak and potatoes—Welsh rarebit, etc. etc.

It is an any-hour, any-meal stove; just attach it to any lamp socket—it is ready to cook.

Order "El Grilator" NOW to be delivered during Hotpoint Week at $3.55—a reduction of one-third from the regular price—in force during Hotpoint Week only. Come in—we will be glad to demonstrate "El Grilator" to you.

Ryan Wolf of No. 1217 North New Hampshire avenue is a new contestant who began his work yesterday. He is 15 years old and attends the Lockwood grammar school, being in the A seventh grade. Ryan believes there is no reason why he shouldn't win the choice of scholarship and the highest reward in gold coin. He will be heard from right along. Ryan wants to go to a military academy.

Lucian Edwards, Jr., of Fullerton sends in a good report of his activities in that school and asks for further supplies. He means business.

RAIN DOESN'T BOTHER.

A cheery, breezy letter came in yesterday from Maxwell Pease, of No. 241 North Painter avenue, Whittier. "I am sending you a bunch of votes to let you know I am still kicking," says Maxwell. "Rain doesn't bother us in Whittier."

Miss Gladys Sowers of No. 977 South Hobart boulevard started in the campaign yesterday. She has been a student of music at a local conservatory and has an ambition to secure a scholarship in the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music. She gave a practical demonstration of what well directed work will do by showing a score of 15,500 votes for her first day's efforts.

LAYS SLAYING AT HUERTA'S DOOR.

MAN WHO SPENT FATEFUL NIGHT WITH MADRID REPRIES TO DENIALS.

Lic. F. Gonzalez Garza, brother of Roque Gonzalez Garza, one of Mexico's present Presidents, in a prepared statement yesterday, declared that despite Gen. Victoriano Huerta's denial, the former dictator was instrumental in having Francisco Madero assassinated in February, 1913.

Senor Garza, who is in Los Angeles in the interests of Francisco Villa, was Governor of the Federal District under Francisco Madero, and having been arrested with Madero, spent the last night of Madero's life with the late President. They, with the late Vice-President, Pino Suarez, were held in the same cell. Senor Garza, however, was released. Suarez and Madero were killed.

CANDIDATES DO NOT GET RISE.

Defeat When Nobody Attends Meetings.

Whitten and Allen Decline to Enter Debate.

Person Club Holds Final
Primary Round-up.

With less than a week of campaigning, the candidates for Mayor last night admitted defeat in their efforts to secure the nomination and elusive voter
to them.

Seven days before election a series of meetings were held, and not more than a couple of hundred persons attended. In most of them candidates for the majority, their relatives,
businessmen, directors, press agents,
and possible appointees attended most of the crowd. The candidates consisted of candidates for Council and other offices.

One of the majority candidates
was an untold number of Council candidates assembled with half heartedness in the City Hall, and some of the City Hall, and some openly admitted that there isn't enough money to be employed in our side, and it also became known that Los Angeles has long since gone to the democratic how-how and the crucial moment of our civic career is at hand.
The candidates spoke of the importance of changing the whole city government, but when a humble citizen asked about cheaper gas and lights and less taxes, the candidate admitted he was not posted or posted not at all on such vital questions.

DIPLOMACY THERE.

When a biographer of Woodrow Wilson, looking toward a chronicle of the Democratic Party, was asked over by Hon. H. A. Pierce, a Republican, showing that the Club is a diplomatic club
that can make itself non-partisan organization.

The only chance any of the majority candidates had of attending a real, large, spontaneous
meeting was turned down last night
when Whitten and R. M. Allen, were challenged to joint debate
with McCallum, a rival candidate for Mayor. He offered to meet them
at the Blanchard Hall Friday night.

"If you are a 'business man-politician,'" said the McCallum reply to Mr. Allen. "Step up and show what you know about city government."

"I prove that I am not a politician," he will not debate. It is good to keep off the other man's back," answered the elusive Mr.
Whitten.

"I don't recognize Mr. McCallum as an individual who will be a serious antagonist to me," said President Whitten, besides, I will have a full debate Friday."

SOME LITERATURE.

The Clean Sweep League presented last night a thorough roadshow of half-face type to hurl at these candidates who refused to answer.
The Clean Sweep headquarters in the Insurance Building yesterday
sent a constant stream of literature. It has been known that the League has been hard up for funds
during the last few days, when they picked up considerably and their activity was heightened correspondingly.

At the Merchants' Trust Building, where the Whitten headquarters are, the office boys were busy afternoon reading the minutest
details of the Sebastian case.
The office of Manager White and a group of one, the Allen headquarters at No. 415 Hill street was working all day, the driest,
most spot in town.

The headquarters there was a constant spurt in activity. The League is extending a canvass of the various parts of the city last night. Campaign Manager White was out today on the sentiment shown by people.

Political Squabbles.

James W. Elliott, proprietor of the Abbey, who started as a candidate for the Council, has changed
his mind and gone fishing.
The Councilman Topham will be the first in the Council.
The students at Polytechnic
without this afternoon.

Whitten is asking the "elect" him. Since he was elected to the Council, it is difficult to see how this favor can be done.

Whitten lost the brewery campaign when he campaigned for the East Side and refused to attend the free beer on Esp. Imperial Campaign Manager Snowden and a crew of capacious booters
were ready to offend the reverse side.

Chas. Horridge Folts, Clean Sweep candidate for the Council, addressed an audience of voters in the City Hall and at the Rose Hill club last night.

Mr. Stewart, one of the officials of the Clean Sweep Federation, and a prohibition worker, yesterday announced the Sebastian case and he placed on the list of available candidates.

A. D. Houghton, candidate for Council, told the audience at the club last night that he would be the pupil of the Guy Eddie

WHO PAYS? The Pursuit of Pleasure

By EDWIN BLISS

And then Billie cried. That it might be called a crowd. Few are given the exact faculty of describing the gurgling mutterings of a year-old infant, whose widened eyes have apparently. Few can stand that searching analysis given to very old folks and very young babies—a measurement that seems borrowed from those infinitely wiser people who dwell across the Line of Life toward which the aged have been led so close and from which the youthful have so recently come. As I say, Billie cried and held out his arms with such a multitude of gurgles as threatened to quite choke him.

For just a moment the whole world
seemed spinning about before Jim White's bewildered eyes. He rather suspected that the fat, tiny finger clamped about the one he had timor-ously thrust apprehensively toward the arbitrary infant might have had something to do with this astonishing
state of affairs. As from a long wait off he heard the gurgles rise into a penetrating wail. And then the laugh of Mary.

"He wants to go to you, Mr. White.
I never knew him to make up with

Ruth sneers at her husband's love for children.

strangers—with anyone before. He

Jim laughed, laughed to conceal the choking of his throat. He threw, yet bold, he regarded the infant speculatively, and, miraculously, his walls subsided into a series of diplomatic mufflings, ready at a second's
notice to become symptomatic of grief or joy. One might have suspected that Billie, out of his vast wisdom,
was accustomed to using certain novel
methods of getting his own way.

"I'm afraid I'll drop him," he laughed, even as his arms awkwardly cupped to receive the child.

"Drop him! You hold him just like he was your own!"

Jim White's heart almost stopped beating, even as his arms clung tighter to the one who had come to him.
Perfectly satisfied, Billie was making clearer study of this man's creature
he had decided to adopt. Unwinkingly his eyes studied the face that looked down at him with such fierce hunger. And then, slowly, ever so slowly, his arms moved up along the great chest and a pair of rather stubby hands crept along the cheeks
and finally the eyes closed gently
and Billie slept.

"Well, I never saw the best—Sam,
I wish you'd look at—"

Mary caught the annoyed expression on Billie's face as she turned and spoke to her husband. He did not hear her, wrapt in his eager study of baby's features. She felt a sudden fierce jealousy consuming her, as she caught the expression of this man,
this man who held a child to his breast so perfectly, with such an expression of unalloyed happiness upon his face. Something dawned upon her with that intuition which seems given women to amend for a certain lack of logic, which her husband would never have found out—that the perfect happiness that had been here before this man was due to the perfect instinct in him that made him delight in treating her as a child, to be humored and pampered and spoiled.

"Come, Jim," she said softly, striving beautifully to make her voice sympathetic, "we must hurry now."
Reluctantly he returned Billie to the mother. Rita noticed that for a few steps he moved on tip-toe, as though fearful of waking the child.
Once she met his eyes and, like an overgrown boy, he flushed to the very roots of his hair and tried to hide the guilty expression upon his face. Diffi-dently, yet with a certain curious firmness, he led her to the library, seating her in his favorite chair and perching himself boldly upon the arm
of it, his arms about her.

"No wonder Sam's got a good disposition," he said finally.

She braced herself instinctively.
Though he tried to make the conversation appear casual, she hurried everything he said to her about it. Just as she had once hurried his embarrassed preamble previous to declaring his love for her. Then she two subjects all women avert from
at all, knowing no trail too desolate but may be brought into their

PORTLAND WEARS AMERICAN FLAGS.

PAINTS EMBLEMS ON HULL TO ASSURE PROTECTION
IN WAR ZONE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
LOS ANGELES HARBOR, April 27.—With two American flags painted on each side of her hull, the larger of which is sixteen feet long, the steamer Portland called today for fuel and proceeded to Stockholm and Carlskrona, Sweden, with a cargo of grain and merchandise loaded at San Francisco.

With these distinguishing emblems
there will be little excuse for submarine lookouts of any of the warring nations of Europe mistaking the nationality of the steamer.

The Portland was formerly in the coastwise grain trade for the Globe Grain and Milling Company between this port and Portland. On account of the high demands for over-sea tonnage since the war, her owners took her off the coastwise run several months ago. The last voyage was made to South American ports.

The Portland was brought to this Coast from the Great Lakes. She is specially fitted to carry bulk grain,
having two elevators on the forward
deck and special bulkheads below.

Disguised as a school girl, Policewoman Mrs. Boyles today arrested Tony Milandi, an Italian shoemaker
at Wilmington on a charge of indecent exposure. Complaints had been made that Milandi was annoying school-girls living on Terminal Island who attended the Wilmington schools and have to pass his shop.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
PASADENA, April 27.—Pasadena with its hills and dells and numerous beauty spots has been definitely decided upon as the literary and art center of a group of New York writers and artists who will come here next October.

H. G. Hamilton of Oak Knoll will leave Saturday for New York, where he will confer with these literary people as to the location of this art center and in regard to the club building, which will probably be erected in Oak Knoll.

John E. Slichter, editor-in-chief of Leslie's Weekly and publisher of several other magazines, who, with his art director, Grant E. Hamilton, passed several weeks here in the winter as guests of the Oak Knoll man, came here to look over the place in connection with the establishment of such a colony.

At first, it was planned to include fifty of the most prominent literary men and women as members of the art club having its headquarters here, but the idea has become so popular that probably twice that many will come.

According to present plans a clubhouse will be erected on improved ground and attractive bungalows built for the individual members. The clubhouses will be a commodious building.

With the arrival of the artists and writers, Pasadena will be a leading literary and art center in America.

REORGANIZATION.
With the reorganization of the City Commission next Monday, it is more than probable that the office of Commissioner of Public Affairs will be done away with.

The department over which William F. Cressler, the new member, will preside will probably be known as the Department of Public Parks and Buildings.

Commissioner Hamilton of the Department of Public Finance, who will become chairman of the board at the expiration of Commissioner Metcalf's term May 1, stated yesterday that the title which will be assigned to Cressler had not yet been determined upon. He intimated, however, that a change in title would be made and said that the new Commissioner would probably be known as Commissioner of Public Parks.

Before Mr. Cressler takes office he will meet with the other members of the board to discuss the future policy of that august body.

HUNDREDS ATTEND
BALFOUR FUNERAL.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

POMONA, April 27.—A thousand persons of the Pomona Valley stood with bowed heads in the city streets today at 10 a.m. paying tribute to the memory of the late Frank W. Balfour, district manager of the Southern California Edison Company, public works, lodge man and friend of everybody.

The body lay in state in a handsome mahogany casket in the south parlor of the Hanson undertaking establishment at Center and Gay avenues, up to 10 o'clock in the forenoon, banked on every side with the greatest array of floral pieces ever seen. The funeral was from over a hundred, the largest ever held in the city.

Recorded by the Seventh Regiment Band and a firing squad of eight members of Co. D, State Militia, of which the deceased was an honorary member, the body was conducted to St. Joseph's Catholic Church, where high mass was celebrated by Father Conchell, assisted by Bishop Conaty and Dr. Joseph Glan of Los Angeles.

The bishop paid a beautiful tribute to the departed, and Father Conchell was almost overcome with emotion when he spoke of the great power for good that Mr. Balfour had been in his church. The church was filled to overflowing, hundreds of persons being unable to get inside the doors.

After the services at the church the body was escorted to Holy Cross cemetery where, surrounded by an auto truckload of flowers it was laid to rest with impressive ceremonies.

Each of 300 Elks marched past the bier and deposited their bouquets. The squad of eight militiamen then fired a salute of three volleys and taps were sounded over the grave of the departed.

The honorary pallbearers were: Judge Paul J. McCormick, M. R. Green and A. W. Childs and Joseph Scott, of Los Angeles; Harvey Nichols, C. E. Harkness, Paul Higgs, Kemp Frits, C. E. Walker, and Fred Graham of this city. The active pallbearers were: Maj. W. W. Midgley, Fred Charles, W. H. Schreiner, C. C. Huff and M. C. Kennedy of this city; J. Vincent Hanson of Los Angeles.

Among the Edison men who attended were: President Miller, Vice-President and General Manager W. A. Brackbridge, Assistant General Manager H. H. Ballard, Director William R. Staats of Pasadena, General Agent S. M. Kennedy, Superintendent of Sales A. W. Childs, Treasurer W. L. Percey, Assistant Secretary A. E. Murphy, General Superintendent R. J. Pearson, Construction Engineer A. W. Dennis, Chief Engineer J. A. Lightship, Purchasing Agent John Otto, and Chief Surgeon H. C. Rinchfield. Also present were the district agents and employees of the Southern California Edison Company to the number of over a hundred.

WHITTIER, April 27.—Death came early this morning after an illness dating from Sunday. Mr. Vestal was 72 years old and had resided here for many years. He was a member of the Friends Church. For some years he had made his home with Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Sharpless. Mrs. Sharpless being his daughter. Funeral services will be held at the Friends Church Thursday, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Henry Edwin McGrew, assisted by President Thomas Newlin of Whittier College.

YOUNG ATTORNEY WEDS.
Announcement was made here today of the marriage of Frederick W. Smith, a young Whittier attorney, to Miss Mae Elizabeth Schneider, at La Mesa, Iowa, April 21. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith of East Camilla street, and the news of the wedding comes as a pleasant surprise to the friends of the bride and groom. The wedding was the culmination of a romance begun in college days, when Mr. Smith and Miss Schneider were attending Oberlin College.

COLTON, April 27.—Prompted by neighborly spirit, the business men of San Bernardino County and the business men of Colton at Hotel Anderson on May 4. The invitation to share the hospitality of a non-time meal comes from the Colton Merchants Protective Association, and the suggestion of the joint affair resulted from the plan of the business men's lunch now so popular at the county seat. The San Bernardino guests will come over by a special Pacific Electric car.

ALHAMBRA, April 27.—The city is arrayed in its best and tuckered tonight while everywhere are seen quantities of white and yellow flowers and decorations, the colors of the P.E.O. assembling here for the twelfth annual convention of the California Grand Chapter, which opens here tomorrow.

There are forty-five chapters of the order in California and delegates from all of them are expected. Several hundreds have arrived tonight and more are looked for on all of the early cars from Los Angeles and other points in the morning. The national convention will be held in Los Angeles early in October, and the plans to be taken up at the national meeting.

The order was started in 1889 and has grown steadily until it now has the distinction of being the largest fraternal organization of women in the world, and is entirely independent of any order of men. It has for its purpose study, advancement and general culture, and to create an educational fund to which all of the chapters contribute at will. Young women are helped to higher education thereby.

The convention will adjourn on Friday and the delegates, one to be given at the San Gabriel Country Club on Thursday night.

Sharks Driven Out of Tia

Exposition City to Purge Itself of Them Today.

[BY DECK WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SAN DIEGO, April 27.—Bunco men and steersmen, who have been fleeing tourists at Tia Juana without restraint for months, were driven out of Mexico today by the Mexican authorities. On the side of the line they were at once seized by officers of the San Diego police force and men of the county Sheriff's office, and brought to the San Diego City Jail in sight-seeing cars.

The bunco men, twenty-five of them, are in the City Jail tonight, and will be ordered out of town tomorrow morning by Chief of Police Wilson.

The sight of the dapperly-attired bunco steersmen, wearing military uniforms, marching along the long bridge and the desert to the customs house on the boundary, made from Tia Juana was an odd one. When they lagged behind, the Mexican army officers, riding their ponies, prodded them on.

Before they left Mexico they were each forced to sign a paper promising not to return to the border. The police officers who had been notified by the San Diego police force of the Lower California to meet the army of bunco men.

After the police of Police Wilson gave the men a short talk telling them how unwelcome they were, they were loaded into night-seeing cars and sent back into their home.

The raid was arranged by Col. E. E. Canto, Governor of Lower California, who has been in correspondence with Chief Wilson for some time regarding the reports of the San Diego police force of the Lower California to meet the army of bunco men.

No one knows how many hundreds of pounds of money are stored there. During the summer months the heat of the sun melts the money, which runs in a stream through the front door out the back below. The bunco men set to work to carry it back into their home.

When this apathy was visited recently the bees and invading red ants were in battle royal, each fighting for life. The robbers were being repelled with vitriolic vigor.

BEES AND ANTS BATTLE FOR STORES OF HONEY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CUDAHY, April 27.—Honey, not out of the proverbial rock of the Bible, but out of the truss of a Southern Pacific steel railroad bridge, is to be fought by the modern David about six miles southeast of Los Angeles, where the afore-mentioned road crosses what was formerly the bed of the Los Angeles River, but is now a field wherein grow potatoes and barley for Chinese gardeners.

There is a small opening in the butt end of one truss where it rests upon the masonry foundation of the bridge. Through this numberless swarms of bees have found ingress to the interior, which is ten inches in diameter, and inclined at an angle of 45 degrees, some fourteen feet long.

No one knows how many hundreds of pounds of honey are stored therein. During the summer months the heat of the sun melts the honey, which runs in a stream through the front door out the back below. The bunco men set to work to carry it back into their home.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
REDONDO BEACH, April 27.—The forerunner of a possible political fight that may wind up in court was launched last night when Will H. Hess, recently recalled by a majority of eight votes, filed a protest with the Board of Trustees.

Mr. Hess claims that at least nine ballots were thrown out illegally and that that would have been sufficient, had they been in his favor, to retain him in office. He demanded a recount by the Board of Trustees.

The board set May 1 as the date for a recount of the alleged illegal counting. Just prior to passing on this James J. Hess, elected to the place of Mr. Hess, was invited to take his seat with the Board of Trustees. City Clerk Anderson administered the oath of office and he was given an opportunity to vote on the measure, though he refused to do so in such a case. He will be the contender of Mr. Hess should any court action arise.

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time

enemy, discovered the formula for

Olive Tablets while treating patients

for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keyword" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"

now and then—a bad breath—a dull,

throbbed feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find

quick, sure and only pleasant results

from one or two little Dr. Edwards'

Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them

10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

bus, Ohio.

At the Courthouse.

 pay them to the police station, where he put up bail."

"Was that his home, where you found him with Miss Stachurski?"

"He was residing there," was the reply.

"Mr. Wells made no defense. He was examined as to the profits of his two stores and said that now there are no profits."

"You can tell me what your profits are, surely?" asked Mr. Hammond.

"You can't answer that until you have paid your bill," said the end of the month," was the reply.

"How long have you been in business?"

"All my life, and my father was before me."

"Then you were a candy-maker before you were born?"

"Yes."

The court granted Mrs. Wells the decree and gave her the custody of the daughter, the father being privileged to see the child twice a week. The question of support of the child will be determined later.

GETS HER FREEDOM.

WILL BE A CLOAK MODEL.
 Mrs. Maurine de Arman, who left the home of her well-to-do husband, Frank de Arman, an Ontario jeweler, to become a model in a Los Angeles cloak store, won a decree of divorce in Judge Monroe's court yesterday on an incident she testified occurred at the Hotel Alexander, Long Beach, March 28 last. Many allegations were enumerated in her complaint, but as Mr. de Arman did not come out to court, these were not brought out at the trial.

Mrs. de Arman, accompanied by detectives, she says, surprised her husband at the Long Beach hotel with the "other woman." The latter slipped into a closet when the invaders entered their room. This was the evidence, and, upon corroboration, the divorce was granted. Mrs. de Arman is healthy and talented, will continue to earn her own living, not dependent on a mere husband, and not subject to "negatives," she alleged in her complaint, she was forced to endure.

Mrs. de Arman objected to being left alone several nights a week. She also objected to Mr. de Arman's alleged boasts of conquests. His allegiance from home, she alleged, made her hysterical, and once she wandered from home, not knowing where she was or how she got there. She finally left him on the 6th inst.

The couple were married in this city April 25, 1904. Mrs. de Arman was formerly Miss Nash of Omaha. As a bride she occupied an important place in the life of Ontario. She asked for no alimony.

CHARLES FRAUD.

IN SPINELESS CACTUS.
 The complaint filed by Mrs. Mary E. Hutchins of Pasadena yesterday is the tale of an investment. The suit is directed against the Garden of Eden, Inc., W. L. Barnard, the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, O. E. Cook and W. A. Stuart. It calls for a rescission of a contract, an order restraining the trust company from selling property, the cancellation of a trust deed and the return of $1718, representing cash invested in a spineless cactus proposition, which Mrs. Hutchins says was misrepresented.

It is alleged that Mr. Barnard, Mr. Cook and Mr. Stuart conspired to defraud Mrs. Hutchins of money and property. She says they represented themselves as men of great wealth and influence, controlling large holdings of land at Newport Beach. The corporation was held up as equally wealthy. She invested $400, believing she would receive a $300 return clear profit from the sale of cuttings from her cactus. She subsequently drew a check for $1200 and executed a contract, and now she alleges the various representations were false.

GETS NO DAMAGES.

FOR FALSH ARREST.
 One night two years ago Roy Pettibone was hauled by Everett Cox, a friend, who drew up at the Arcade Depot curb in an automobile. Mr. Cox was a chauffeur and he was driving the car of Victor G. Kleinberger. The car contained one Tommy Watkins and two men.

"Want a ride?" Mr. Cox is alleged to have asked Mr. Pettibone.

"Sure," responded Mr. Pettibone, and the big event of that night was toward. On Spring street a third girl was taken into the machine, and the party proceeded to the beach.

Along about midnight the car was hitting it up on the Speedway at Venice, when a telegraph pole butted into the game. The car was wrecked and Mr. Pettibone was knocked senseless.

A policeman happened along and took Tommy Watkins and the girl into custody. Mr. Cox and Mr. Pettibone were taken to the station. Their injuries were slight.

Mr. Kleinberger told his auto was wrecked. Investigation showed his garage had been broken into and his car taken out. He consulted the strict Attorney's office, and a charge of burglary was filed against the three men. Later it was changed to a misdemeanor. In the Police Court Mr. Watkins was a witness for the people. Mr. Pettibone convinced the District Attorney that he did not know the car was stolen, and his case was dismissed.

On the strength of these facts Mr. Pettibone brought suit against Mr. Kleinberger for $25,000 damages, and it was tried by Judge Shenk yesterday. Mr. Kleinberger said he barely knew Mr. Pettibone. The court gave judgment in his favor, as the testimony failed to show malice, and because the felony charge had been filed at the advice of the District Attorney.

CAN'T GET PROPERTY.

SHE DEEDED TO BROTHER.
 Mrs. Eleanor Babcock, prominent in Washington (D. C.) society, a member of the D.A.B. and the Colonial Dames, failed in Judge Shenk's court yesterday to recover property valued at $10,000, which she deeded to her brother, John P. Holland, under certain conditions. This property is located in Riverside county. She alleged in her complaint that Mr. Holland asked her to convey it to him, he agreeing to assume a $1500 mortgage and to execute a second mortgage of $3000.

Mr. Holland failed to execute the $3000 mortgage. In November, 1904, she says, she agreed to release him from executing this mortgage if he would pay $10 a month to her aunt, Mrs. Minnie E. H. Keys, during her life. This was accepted, but only a part of the payments were made, she averred.

Babcock was bound by the act of her attorney in that action.

COURT PARAGRAPHS.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.

LOS ANGELES INSURANCE SUIT. One hour after her husband had been murdered in Anaheim, Mrs. Mabel Lee, unaware of his untimely death, paid the monthly premium on his policy of insurance to the agent of the North American Insurance Company. When the death of the husband, Stephen Lee, was reported to the company it refused to pay the policy of $4000, claiming that the premium had not been paid for that month. Mrs. Lee, however, holding that the policy had lapsed and was not in force at the time Mr. Lee died.

BROTHER OPPOSES SISTER. Mrs. Charlotte S. Angstrom, daughter of Emmeline Warner Smith, deceased, is seeking to have her mother's will probated here as a foreign instrument. Ernest Warner Smith of Pasadena, her brother, opposes the probate on the ground that it cannot be probated here as a foreign instrument. His sister, he says, is not a resident of California. Mrs. Angstrom alleges her mother was a resident of Detroit, and the will was admitted to probate in Michigan. Her petition was filed in this county because Mrs. Smith owned property here valued at $5000.

Chief Pollard has been interested in the work more than ten years and only a few months ago was appointed to the office he now holds. While here he will be entertained at the Y.M.C.A., of which he was at one time a prominent official.
